Desert Diary

By R. B.

Boy Scouts here in the valley are being well cared for by the Arrowhead Council which directs county scout activities. Joseph Wasserburger Twentynine Palms banking executive and member of the Arrowhead council, informed us that when the council's $20,000 budget was lacking some $6000 for the year.

The $6000 represents an increase due to the expansion of scout activities here on the desert where many new troops and cub packs — as our own in Joshua Tree — have been formed.

To raise this $6000 the council appealed to friends of scouting in the San Bernardino Valley — bypassing any further appeal to people out here. Why? Because, they want to give scouting here in the Greater Morongo Valley "a good start" while still in its infancy. It amounts to parents giving their young married children "a good start" as they set out in life.

There are 21 persons on the Arrowhead Executive Council, representing all parts of the county. Wasserburger represents this area.

Last Ride for Old Ambulance

The last ride of the old Joshua Tree ambulance proved to be quite an eventful one when Mrs. Martha F. Main was rushed to the Los Angeles General hospital last Thursday.

Mrs. May Beckwith who served as accompanying nurse to Mrs. Main said the old ambulance really "put its best foot forward" on the last trip. Jimmy Beckwith was the driver.

Police in Ontario stopped the ambulance for speeding because it was an out-of-town vehicle, but let the driver proceed when the patient was observed.

According to Mrs. Beckwith, Mrs. Main had to have carbon dioxide administered when going through the lower desert country. Her condition improved as the trip progressed.

The old ambulance was retired from service at midnight Sunday when the newly acquired DeSoto was placed on active duty.

Cubs Win 17-9 Practice Game

The Joshua Tree Cubs trounced the Twentynine Palms High School softball team 17-9 here Sunday evening in a practice game. Earlier in the week the Cubs had been the recipients of a similar shellacking by the same team.

With the score tied at 7-7 in the fifth the Cubs began walking the bases as the visitors pitching fell apart. Ten runs crossed the plate, most of them due to walks.

The Cubs were readying for Kenny's team in a league game as this issue of the Journal went to press.

New Ambulance Now in Service

The new ambulance which was purchased by the Joshua Tree Ambulance Association from Twentynine Palms at a cost of $1400 was brought into town last Saturday and as of Monday morning has officially been considered "in service" it was learned from Jack Branthoover and Jim Shearn who drove it here.

Sunday the smart brown ambulance was driven to the communities of Morongo Valley, Yucca Valley and Pioneertown for residents there to see. Saturday it had been displayed in Rancho Sun Valley. The new vehicle is fully equipped.

A program to raise funds for paying off a bank loan and operating expenses is now under way. Branthoover, chamber of commerce president, said in the neighborhood of $1000 had been pledged or donated up to the present time. Mrs. Gus Ojala and the local Women's Club are assisting in the campaign.

Local Woman's Son Killed in England

Frank Miller, son of Mrs. May Miller of the Joshua Tree Lodge, was killed in England last week in a vehicle accident. The 26 year-old air force sergeant had been stationed there almost a year. His wife was seriously injured with him, a telegram from air forces in Washington said.

Mrs. Miller left here for the city yesterday to make arrangements for her son's shipment to this country. Donna, a sister of the deceased, lives in Joshua Tree with Mrs. Miller. Another sister, Mrs. Edward Bosley, lives in Pioneertown.

Wedding Bells To Ring June 28

Wedding bells will ring in Joshua Tree at noon, Tuesday, June 28th at the new chapel. It will be the first wedding in the chapel.

Nils Nelson and Irma Bahrs of San Francisco will be united in marriage by the Rev. D. C. Williams. The public is invited to attend.

Dr. Williams met young Nielson during the war when he gave the young soldier a lift in his automobile while traveling through the desert. Neilson corresponded with the pastor throughout the war and recently wrote saying he would like to come to Joshua Tree to be married.

Jack Bennell Dies

John A. Bennell, 65, well known subdivider on the desert here died at his home near Yucca Valley last Thursday of a heart attack. Last rites were held at Forest Lawn in Los Angeles on Saturday afternoon.

Bennell was owner and subdivider of the Joshua Forest Estates, one mile east of Yucca Valley.

He was buried next to his son who died nine years ago.

Housing Plan For Ambulance Taking Shape

A home for Joshua Tree's new ambulance and the sturdy old fire truck?

This question had bothered Claude Irwin for some time, so he decided to see what he could do about it. What followed could well be interpretated as Joshua Tree's "Operation Civic Center!"

How to get the necessary funds for materials was the first question Irwin wanted to look into. He talked to Mike Malia about it. What happens? Malia offers the use of his block plant free for the production of concrete blocks. Not only that, he donates his labor for two days to make them, along with nephew Bob Wilson.

That was step one.

Claude then goes to see Harold Jost and R. E. Stacey over at the Joshua Tree Builders Supply about lumber. The lumber can be taken care of at cost, they say.

To raise funds for the lumber and other materials, Irwin figures on some special ball games here at the local park. He talks this over with other people. They go for the idea.

Now what about a lot to build this place on?

After probing possibilities along this line Irwin talks to R. V. Pierpont. Mr. Pierpont offers a choice lot — valued at several thousand dollars — to the community association providing it be used as a permanent site for the future city hall, and the ambulance garage building be a suitably constructed building. The lot is located one block west of four corners, next to the lumber yard.

But the wheels of progress don't stop here.

Pioneertown - Yucca Road Blocked as County Begins Improvement Project

The county road between Yucca Valley and Pioneertown was closed to traffic effective Monday morning as county road workers continued an improvement project which was started early last week. Art Strickler of Twentynine Palms said the grading and improving of the road would require several weeks work.

Strickler, district foreman for the county road commissioner, asserted that the road would not be oiled at this time, as has been rumored throughout the valley. The work which requires heavy equipment including bulldozers and graders will be aimed at eliminating some sharp turns and knocking out some of the hilly sections of the 4 mile stretch.

A detour into Pioneertown thru the Skyline Ranch has been scraped and is easily traveled by those traveling to the "old western style" town. Directions are as follows: Take road to Victorville (turn off located one mile east of Yucca Valley at Bennell's Whispering Well Ranch) to detour sign approximately 2 miles north of 29 Palms highway. Turn left and proceed through Skyline Ranch approximately 6 miles into Pioneertown.

The importance of the Joshua Tree Ambulance Association to the community and the several nearby communities it serves cannot be minimized by any right thinking individual in the "high desert."

With the addition of the new fully equipped ambulance all residents of the valley have a protection they certainly should appreciate. The desert communities in the lower desert of Riverside county are not so fortunate, it would seem from an article published in the Banning Record of last week. The county supervisors there denied a petition from all ambulance operators for financial aid for transporting indigent cases. Thereupon, the operators gave notice they would stop service to those who can't pay.

Now, it may be necessary for a person injured in an auto crash in Coachella or Palo Verde Valley to wait for a county ambulance from Riverside to pick him up. Ray F. Allen, Beaumont and Indio ambulance operator, said anyone involved in such an accident would probably die from the heat before the county ambulance arrived.

Supervisor Hill said the answer is for the county to set up branch ambulance stations. (Meaning more taxes).

Bob Smith, the county garage chief, said he couldn't remember when county-owned ambulances ever made an emergency run as far away as Indio. Allen added that he had no idea what will happen to people who have auto crashes on the desert now.

You see how the Joshua Tree ambulance solves our local valley situation? Nobody is turned down by the ambulance association in cases of emergency. In cases of illness or accident an authorization through a recognized doctor is all that it takes to get the ambulance service.

Every family in the valley can and should do its part in contributing to the purchase and upkeep of our fine new ambulance. Fill out the coupon below TODAY and send it to the Joshua Tree Ambulance Association. Take pride in having a share in this worth while endeavor — one that might well save the life of one of your loved ones, or your own. — R. B.

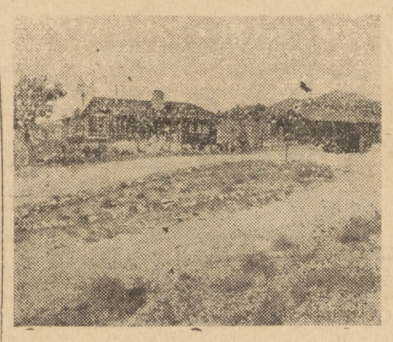
Lowly Philosophy

By JUNE LeMERT PAXTON



THE JOSHUAS

ALWAYS THERE IS ONE OPEN DOOR

That door through which we had planned to step into security shut with a bang! Behind us closed the door that was always the open sesame to companionship and love! At times the doors to every avenue of happiness and contentment seemingly close. Barriers arise at every opening through which we try to cross;

The bewilderment of that first closed door stunned our sensibilities! At the closing of the second door, we lost hope; Disappointment and discouragement blinded us as the other avenues to help failed us. Bewildered, disappointed, and discouraged, we at last turned to the Great Teacher who once said: "I AM THE DOOR."

Yes, we finally come to the place where we must know that in the Spirit Father rests our security. We must know that God IS, and is the source of our love. We must learn — oft times the hard way — that happiness and contentment are states of consciousness! They are not found "lo here, nor lo there!" And, above all, we must know that no person, no circumstance, and no thing, can take away that which rightfully belongs to us! Remember that, for it is, in TRUTH, your open-sesame!

"Behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it!" The door to real happiness and joy has never been closed!

Note of Thanks

I wish to thank all my friends for their kindness and loyalty — Everyone has been wonderful to me since my accident — Kind deeds I'll always cherish and never forget.

As Always,
Margaret Bair

Fighting Flies by the Factory-Full

PITTSBURGH, PA. — Dressed to kill in her own conception of work clothes (pedal pushers and sport shirt), Shirley Cullom demonstrates the newest scientific weapon for wholesale attack on insects. Using electrically-compressed air, the power sprayer she wields treats 250,000 cu. ft. against flying insects in less than half an hour. Developed by Gulf Oil research, it adapts the principle originated by the aerosol bomb to large-scale use in food industries. Its mist is non-toxic to humans, imparting no odor and leaving no residue.

The Yucca Valley carnival was quite a success. Everybody seemed to have a good time and enjoyed the good food served at the snack bar. Sandra Harmon and her pet dog won first prize in the children's parade. Joe Arch of Joshua Tree went home with a prize for pitching the best horse shoes.

The show case holding the baked goods fairly bulged with goodies donated by the ladies of Yucca Valley. The entertainment committee wishes to send along their sincere thanks to those people who gave so generously. We also wish to thank those who came and brought so freely. The proceeds, a little over $200, go for a new stove, dishes and silverware for the new kitchen that we hope to build soon.

Pioneertown News

Practically the whole town turned out to fight the brush fire which threatened the Pipes Canyon ranches of John Keyes and Curt Bush last Tuesday . . . . it took three hours of battling flames 20 to 30 feet high to bring the fire under control . . . . forest rangers arriving at the scene commended the group who fought the blaze.

tacted. That organization agrees to furnish labor and materials for the necessary electrical work.

Charles Mitchell, insurance agent, keeps the ball rolling by offering to write the fire insurance on the building.

Next, Gus Ojala says, "I'll haul all the sand and gravel you need — fer nuthin!" (Brother this is a steam roller if I ever saw one Big Claude tells himself.)

Oh yes, we should tell the building will be 24 by 24 feet and C. C. Branthoover is going to draw up the plans and register the permit to build. That's a president of a chamber of commerce for you!

The Sportsman's Club is set to sponsor the over-all program. The male population of the town will be called upon to donate some of their time and energy — to solve the labor situation, that is.

Getting back to the ball games, the famed Joshua Tree "Old Women's Team" will display their talents here in three night games. There will be a slight charge of course. Proceeds go to the cause, and all comers are guaranteed a wonderful hilarious time!

The games with tentative dates are:

Sunday, July 10 — J.T. Old Women vs. Pioneertown Cowboys (old and young.)

Sunday, July 17 — J.T. Old Women vs. Yucca Valley (O.W. too)

Sunday, July 24 — J.T. Old Women vs. 29 Palms (Old Men, God bless 'em) ....

Sounds like fun. And all the foregoing materialized within 24 hours after the beautiful new DeSoto ambulance rolls into Joshua Tree and a guy pipes himself the question: "What are we going to do about a building for that baby?"

Church Corner

By Edythe Fraetis

Two of our Sunday School members, Peter and David Young, are doing creditable work as ushers.

Our pastor, Dr. D. C. Williams, read a portion of the third chapter of Isaiah and spoke from the text: "My Father thou art the guide of my Youth," as it was Father's Day.

He spoke rousingly of a father's duty toward his children. Too many boys and girls can say truly "I never have known my father." So many fathers let business engross them until they are scarcely seen at home except for some meals.

Many boys take their fathers as examples and guides. They follow their father's trade or profession. "Fathers be friends with your boys, giving them love, sympathy and comradeship. Do not reprimand them in the presence of strangers."

The father of Robert Ingersoll, the infidel, was a pastor, too engrossed with his parishoners to give any time to his two sons. They ran away from home.

One father, after meeting a bum whose father had neglected him, resolved to devote one hour each week day and two hours on Sunday to companionship with his son. Nothing was to interfere with these hours.

The Bible Study Group will meet at the church on Wednesday, at 7:30. The leader will be Mrs. Edythe Fraetis.

A Fellowship Meeting will be held in the social hall on Saturday, June 25th, at 6:00 p.m., and on each fourth Saturday of the month following.

Youth conservation will be the club's project for the year it was asserted by Mrs. Ojala who attended a convention of California Women's Clubs at Long Beach with Mrs. Herb Longshaw earlier in the year.

Bring New Life to Faded Casuals of Last Summer via the Dye-Bath

The magic of the dye-bath can give your faded wearables of last summer another season's use, as well as new color beauty, and it doesn't matter if they're made of synthetic fibers, such as rayon, or of natural fibers like cotton and linen, according to the Tintex Home Economics Bureau. An all-fabric dye, in a choice of 50 colors, is now available for the purpose.

However, if your slacks, blouses, shorts and other outdoor wearables have become unevenly faded, as is often the case, or if you want to change to an entirely different color, the bureau recommends the use of color remover first. Neither the all-fabric dye nor the color remover, made by the same manufacturer, require boiling. Each is only a dime a package.

You can have gloves to match every ensemble in your wardrobe by the same tintexing process. If they're white or light-colored, you need but dye, the bureau points out. If they're dark, and you're changing to a new color, use color remover first.
